

The Hindi Speaking Map of India

% of people reporting Hindi as their mother tongue as per census 2011

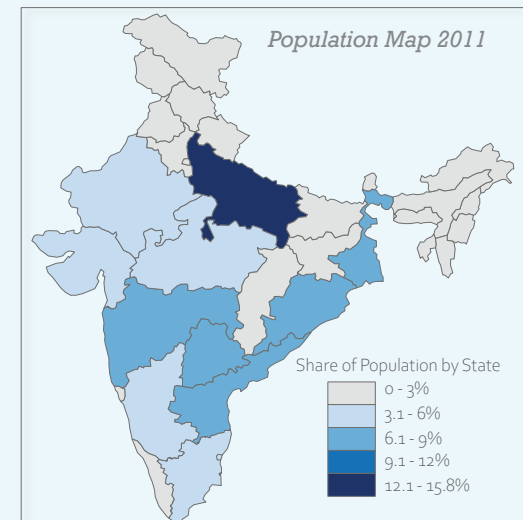

Data is collected as per 2011 census of India. According to the report, there are 99 existing languages which are not specified in the eight schedule of constitution of India. The scheduled languages of India are 22 as per the report. The distribution of language is per 10,000 population.

The top 5 languages spoken in India by population are: 1. Hindi, 2. Bengali, 3. Marathi, 4. Telugu, 5. Tamil

Uttar Pradesh is the largest state by population as per 2011 census and also largest state by number of Hindi Speakers. There are about 18,79,79,055 (18.79 crores) Hindi speakers out of 19,98,12,341 (19.98 crores). Registering the highest in the country

Kerala has one of lowest populations in the country and has least Hindi speakers with 51,928 out of 3,34,06,061 (3.34 crores) as per 2011.

Made by
Chinna Subbaraya Siddharth Ramavajjala
Cartographer 2022

Projection - Asia South Alber's Equal Area
Central Meridian: 84°E, Standard Parallel 1: 8° N
Standard Parallel 2: 37° N
Cartographer - Chinna Subbaraya Siddharth Ramavajjala
(Siddharthrcs@gmail.com)